

Sharon Quirk Silva voted to prevent victims of teacher sex abuse from testifying in court, then took $200,000.00 from the teachers union as a “thank you” for her vote

Quirk-Silva voted NO on a measure to allow every victim of sex abuse at the hands of a teacher the right to testify.

The powerful lobbyists for the California Teachers Association Union rewarded Quirk-Silva for her vote with $200,000.00 in campaign cash.

SOURCE: AB 375 Amendment Vote, 5/29/13

SOURCE: FPPC Contribution Records

Don't send Quirk-Silva back to Sacramento.

Sharon Quirk-Silva got $200,000.00
from the state teachers union...

And voted against allowing every victim of teacher sex abuse to testify.

Quirk-Silva wants to make it harder to fire abusive teachers.

Shame on you,
Sharon Quirk-Silva

Girl in photo is an actor representing the estimated 200,000 current K-12 students who will be abused by a teacher during their 12 years in California public school.